TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

By Appointment.

The New General Post Office. This spacious edifice, opened in October, 1910, is situated on a portion of the site of the old Bluecoat School, and has the distinction of being the first Government establishment to consist solely of concrete and steel. This building was rendered necessary by the continually increasing postal business of London, and is directly opposite to the old General Post Office of St. Martins-le-Grand.
